

FLOYD WICKMAN'S SUMMER SOCIAL MEDIA CONTEST

WIN A VIP CRUISE WITH FLOYD!

Mention Floyd on Twitter, Facebook, YouTube or your blog and you could be his guest in July!

This summer Floyd Wickman is going web 2.0. Are you a graduate of one of Floyd Wickman's training programs? Do you use what he has taught you in the field? Floyd wants you to talk about it online. In fact, every time you mention something positive about Floyd or describe how you applied what he's taught you in the field on a social network, we'll reward you with an entry in our contest. Floyd's summer event, The Forum, is coming up and we'll pick one person from the 10 people with the most entries to be Floyd's personal guest and get the VIP treatment at The Forum. You'll enjoy:

- Free admission to The Forum
- Airfare, hotel and transportation to/from airport for your trip
- A Friday afternoon cruise on Floyd's boat (yacht is more appropriate!) with Floyd and a few VIP guests.
- All the benefits of attending The Forum ----->

If you haven't yet, open your Facebook and Twitter accounts, create your blog and start talking! We want to see it all - photos, videos, success stories - just be creative. If you use Twitter and/or update your Facebook status, our magic computer will find what you wrote and count your entry.

If you do anything else, email it (or use the share button in Facebook) to "jason@floydwickman.com" to count as an entry.

Oh, and Floyd has some big fans out there who we really love, but please, no trash talking or bad mouthing other trainers or training programs in your posts. Anything like that won't be counted in the contest anyway so just stay positive and focused on Floyd.
